Canadian Account Terms and Conditions

4. TRANSACTION PROVISIONS

4.1 No Advice

You acknowledge that we do not and will not give any investment, legal, or tax advice, nor will we make any recommendations regarding the suitability, profitability, or appropriateness of any Transaction. You acknowledge that all Transactions are unsolicited and entered into based on your own decision or that of your Authorized User. Except as expressly provided in Section 3.1, Moneycorp and its employees cannot serve as your authorized representative or agent, and you agree not to solicit or rely on us or any of our employees for any investment, legal, tax, or trading advice. Any market analysis tools, consultative services, hedging strategies, or other services or data provided by us are for informational use only and do not constitute a recommendation regarding any Transaction, and we do not guaranty the accuracy or timeliness of any such information.

4.2 Responsibility for Orders

You are responsible for all activity on your Account including any Transactions entered by all Authorized Users, even if your Account credentials, including a username and/or password used when accessing our Trading Platform, have been compromised. If your Account credentials have been compromised, you remain responsible for all Transactions until we have been notified and have had a reasonable amount of time to revoke access to your Account and issue new Account credentials. We are not responsible for any temporary disruption to your Account during the time in which the Account compromise is investigated.

4.3 Order Handling

We will attempt to execute all Transactions in accordance with your instructions, as received through our Trading Platform, via telephone, email, or other means we allow from time to time. Where prevailing rates are different from the rates posted on our Trading Platform, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to execute any Transactions on or close to the prevailing market rates. Regardless of whether we issue a written confirmation, you agree that a Contract shall have been formed and is binding upon the earlier of: (1) when Moneycorp verbally confirms the terms of a Transaction placed by telephone; (2) when Moneycorp sends a Confirmation confirming the terms of a Transaction entered by email or facsimile, or pursuant to a Standing Order; or (3) when Moneycorp sends a confirmation message to you through its Trading Platform. You hereby agree not to assume that any Transaction has been executed until you have received notification from us by the applicable method described above. We are not responsible for delays in transmission or execution of any Transaction due to disruption, failure, or malfunction of any of our systems or any third party system, and we are not liable for any claims, losses, damages, costs, or expenses, including legal fees, arising other than as a direct result of our wilful misconduct or gross negligence.

4.3.1 Confirmations

We will promptly send you a Confirmation reflecting the terms of each Transaction. You agree to review the Confirmation for accuracy promptly upon receipt and to advise us immediately of any error or discrepancy. You also agree to notify us immediately if you execute a Transaction but fail to receive a Confirmation. If you do not notify us of an error in a Confirmation or of the fact that you did not receive a Confirmation within one (1) hour after we issue the Confirmation, you are deemed to have waived any right to contest, or to make a claim against us with regard to, the terms of the applicable Transaction.

You agree that your signature on the Account Application constitutes your execution of the Confirmation for each Transaction. Each Confirmation shall be deemed to incorporate and be subject to all of the terms of the Account Agreement.

4.3.2 Instructions

You agree to provide written instructions for any Delivery on or before the Settlement Date. Moneycorp shall have no responsibility to take any action to deliver funds on account of a Transaction unless and until Moneycorp receives written delivery instructions reasonably acceptable to Moneycorp. You warrant that every settlement instruction provided to Moneycorp with respect to any Transaction on your Account is true, complete, and accurate. You authorize Moneycorp to, and acknowledge that Moneycorp will, rely on instructions provided by you, without further inquiry, and agree to indemnify and hold Moneycorp harmless against any loss, costs, and expenses incurred by Moneycorp as a result of any action taken or not taken by Moneycorp pursuant to your instructions.

4.3.3 Settlement

We have no obligation to settle a Transaction until we have received sufficient cleared funds. We may extend the value date of any pending transaction if, in our reasonable discretion, there is any risk that payment will be dishonoured. If on any Settlement Date more than one Delivery of a particular currency is to be made between you and Moneycorp, Moneycorp will calculate the aggregate amounts deliverable by the Parties and only the difference, if any, between these aggregate amounts shall be delivered by the Party owing the larger amount to the other Party.

4.3.4 No Cancellations

You acknowledge that all Transactions are final and may not be cancelled or amended, except as necessary to correct an error that we made or as otherwise required by applicable law. You are responsible for knowing the status of any pending Transactions before entering additional Transactions. A Transaction history may be provided to you upon request.

4.4 Transaction Limits

You understand and agree that Moneycorp may place limits on the value and/or types of Transactions that you will be allowed to enter into with Moneycorp, and that these limits may be increased or decreased by Moneycorp, in its sole discretion, without prior notice to you.

4.5 Quotes and Volatility

Any price quote we provide for a currency exchange is a request for offers and will not be deemed accepted until confirmed by us pursuant to Section 4.3. In the event that a quoted price is unavailable when you enter a Transaction, we may reject the Transaction and offer you a new price quote. Any Transaction entered without a rate that has been agreed upon by us will be executed at our prevailing rate at the time the Transaction is entered.

Canadian Account Terms and Conditions

4.6 Standing Orders

When you place a Standing Order, we will use best efforts to fill the Order at the price quoted. You acknowledge and agree, however, that the execution price may differ from the quoted price, and that in the event that we cannot fill your Order at the price quoted, we will fill your Order at the next best available price. With regard to Standing Orders, no Contract is formed and binding until confirmed by us pursuant to Section 4.3. You agree that all Standing Orders are good until cancelled by you, unless otherwise specified by us in writing, and may otherwise be filled at any time.

4.7 Drafts; Preauthorized Fund Transfers

In the event that we agree to issue a Draft in connection with a Transaction or otherwise, you must notify us immediately if you discover that delivery has not been made pursuant to your delivery instructions. If we become aware that the Beneficiary has not received an issued Draft, we will use reasonable efforts to place a stop payment on the Draft. We are not liable for any losses you suffer as a result of the stop payment. We may choose to issue a refund or a replacement for any Draft that is not received by the Beneficiary, but if we determine that the Draft has been cashed, we shall have no obligation to issue such a refund or replacement. If you recover a Draft for which we have issued a refund or replacement, you agree to return the Draft to us immediately and not to attempt to cash it. If you cash a Draft after a replacement has been issued, we may stop payment on the replacement Draft and seek reimbursement from you. You may be liable for any costs, fees, or other expenses associated with a cancellation or stop payment instruction.

4.8 Incoming Transactions

All funds transfers or deliveries of any payment instrument(s) received by us after our daily cut-off time on a Business Day, or received on a day that is not a Business Day, will be treated and recorded as if received on the next Business Day. For any funds received by us in a currency other than those approved to be held in your Account pursuant to Section 3.1, we reserve the right to convert such foreign currency to CAD at our prevailing rates if an exchange rate has not been predetermined and we have been unable to agree upon an exchange rate within a commercially reasonable period of time.

We do not accept cash deposits. Any cash deposits sent by mail will be rejected. We are not liable for any deposits, including cash, lost in the mail, lost in transit, or otherwise not received by us.

We reserve the right to withhold payment on all incoming Drafts until we are satisfied that we have received cleared funds. If any Draft you sell to us is subsequently recalled or returned, you hereby agree to indemnify us for such amount and for any costs or expenses we incur, including foreign exchange losses or charges, in handling the Draft.

5. HEDGING CONTRACTS

The following terms in this Section apply to all Hedging Contracts entered with Moneycorp:

5.1 Hedging requirement

You represent and warrant that, by entering into a Hedging Contract with us, you are doing so to hedge your commercial risk as identified in your Account Application or otherwise notified to us, and not for the purposes of speculation or investment in foreign currency. You are deemed to repeat this representation and warranty each time you enter into a Hedging Contract with us.

5.2 Fees and Charges

You agree that by the end of the Business Day following any day on which you enter into a Hedging Contract with Moneycorp, you shall pay to Moneycorp all premiums, fees, costs, points, and/or other applicable charges set forth in the Confirmation.

5.3 Settlement and Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed by us in writing, on or before any Settlement Date, you agree to make to Moneycorp full payment of the required Delivery Amount, in collected funds, for all Hedging Contracts to be fully or partially Settled on the Settlement Date. Moneycorp has no obligation to make Delivery pursuant to any Hedging Contract unless and until it has collected the full Delivery Amount due on account of the Hedging Contracts being Settled on the applicable Settlement Date.

5.4 Delivery Windows

Each Hedging Contract must be fully Settled on or before the value date set forth in the Confirmation. For Hedging Contracts specified with variable Delivery date(s), you may designate full or partial Delivery on one or more Settlement Dates during the period specified in the Hedging Contract. If multiple Settlement Dates are selected, you must transfer the required Delivery Amount to Moneycorp for the amount of each respective Delivery before currency can be released by Moneycorp.

5.5 Margin Requirements

You will, if required by Moneycorp, pledge and maintain with us Collateral sufficient to meet the Margin Requirement for each Hedging Contract, as set forth in each Confirmation or in a Credit Facility agreement. Moneycorp will establish the Margin Requirement, in Moneycorp's sole discretion pursuant to Moneycorp's then-existing internal credit policies. You acknowledge that failure to provide any required Collateral within two (2) Business Days from the date we make a demand or request for Collateral, may result in cancellation of the Hedging Contract at our sole discretion. In such event, you will be liable to us for any and all losses and you agree promptly to pay for any losses in connection with the cancellation of the Contract. We will have no obligation to you other than to return any balance remaining in your Account after deducting any losses we suffer in connection with your failure to pay the Collateral we requested.

Any failure by us to call for Collateral does not constitute a waiver of our right to do so at any time. You acknowledge that, while Moneycorp operationally does not commingle customer Collateral with its own funds, Collateral pledged to Moneycorp will not be segregated and any interest which may accrue on such Collateral is assigned by you to Moneycorp and is the sole property of Moneycorp. Moneycorp will have the right to (i) sell, pledge, rehypothecate, assign, loan, invest, use, commingle (with the Collateral of other customers) or otherwise dispose of, or otherwise use in its business any Collateral it holds, free from any claim or right of any nature whatsoever that you may have including any equity or right of redemption; and (ii) register any Collateral, if applicable, in the name of Moneycorp, its custodian or a nominee for either.

Canadian Account Terms and Conditions

5.6 Security Interest

On any day on which you transfer Collateral to Moneycorp, you pledge such Collateral as security for your obligations under the Hedging Contracts and grant to Moneycorp a first priority continuing security interest in, lien on, and right of set-off against all such Collateral. Upon the return of your Collateral in accordance with this Account Agreement, the security interest and lien granted hereunder on such Collateral will be released immediately and, to the extent possible, without any further action required.

5.7 Transfer of Collateral

Upon demand made by Moneycorp, if the Deposit Requirement is greater than the Threshold (if any), then you will transfer to Moneycorp Collateral having a value (as determined by Moneycorp based on prevailing market rates) as of the date of transfer at least equal to the Deposit Requirement.

5.8 Additional collateral

Moneycorp reserves the right, upon reasonable notice to you, to modify the Margin Requirements and collect additional Collateral.

5.9 Termination

Upon termination of any Hedging Contract prior to its Maturity Date, you will pay to Moneycorp an amount, determined by Moneycorp, equal to the CAD equivalent Moneycorp would have to pay or would have received if it were to replace the Hedging Contract using prevailing market rates, including any fees and expenses.

However, we retain the right to cancel or reverse any Transactions that we deem, in our sole and absolute discretion, to be unauthorized or ordered at a price not existing on our systems at the time the Transaction was entered.
