A resilient risk management framework for your business

Flexible hedging solutions with less friction, more action

Foreign exchange (FX) risk management and hedging solutions help businesses protect against potential losses due to adverse currency fluctuations. These tools allow companies to stabilize their cash flows, set predictable costs, and improve financial planning when dealing in multiple currencies.

By implementing hedging strategies, such as forward contracts, options, and swaps, businesses can lock in exchange rates or limit exposure, reducing the financial impact of volatile markets. Our solutions can help you manage your business treasury risks by avoiding sudden losses, stabilise profit margins, and ensure predictability when working with international clients or suppliers.

If your payment isn't due today, explore our other FX strategies designed to help you capitalize on fastmoving currency markets while effectively managing risk.

Forward contracts

A forward contract* allows you to buy or sell currency on a future date at an agreed-upon price, sheltering you against potential negative exchange rate movements.

*Forward contracts may require a deposit

Currency options

Foreign exchange Options are powerful tools that can be used to manage your business's currency exchange strategy. The instrument that you choose will depend largely on your circumstances and needs: whilst some of these Options are designed to minimize your exchange-rate risk, there are others that can give you the opportunity to participate or outperform current market rates but involve taking on additional risk.

Moneycorp offers a variety of FX Options for businesses, ranging from Vanilla Options to more advanced instruments.

Please be advised that our Options products may not be appropriate for all prospective clients.

Market orders

Market Orders allow you to target a particular exchange rate without purchasing immediately.

We offer two types of Market Orders - a Limit Order and a Stop Loss Order. These two strategies can also be used together, which is known as an OCO (one cancels the other) order.

Limit Orders let you set a buy/sell above or below the current market price. When the market price reaches your target price, the order will automatically be filled.

Stop-Loss Orders are the opposite of a limit order, where you set a "worst-case" rate at which the order will be filled.

From here, your account manager will begin executing the agreed strategy, regularly reviewing to make improvements when necessary.

Our dedicated team of experienced currency risk management professionals will help you execute on your risk management strategy in line with your risk-appetite and investment objectives.

Your qualified account manager will begin by understanding your business and the role foreign exchange plays within.

Your gualified account manager will present and discuss your bespoke solutions. You'll then work together to select appropriate strategies.

Frequently asked questions

Is there a fee to use Moneycorp corporate services?

Unlike banks, we won't charge you to open a corporate account and to hold currencies. Transaction fees are dependent on the product and fee structure pre-agreed with your account manager, depending on anticipated business volumes.

How do I track my payments and change details?

Using Moneycorp Online, you can view all your recipients, transactions and details in one place. The platform also allows you to export data and change your details as needed. Alternatively, if you have a more complex query, your account manager is always on-hand to help.

How do I open a corporate account?

To open an account, simply email or call our team, and an account manager will be assigned to guide you through how to open an account, make a trade, use our online platform, and help you evaluate which foreign exchange and payments solutions are best suited to your business.

Can I fix an exchange rate to avoid market volatility?

The short answer is yes you can. There are a few solutions which allow you to do so such as a Forward Contract; we can also help you mitigate market volatility using Currency Options. Alternatively, if you have a more urgent transaction, you can take advantage of the current favorable rate using a Spot Contract.

How is my money safeguarded by Moneycorp?

We hold all customer funds in dedicated bank accounts at major financial institutions. These funds are strictly segregated from Moneycorp's own operating funds and those accounts are audited regularly. Funds held in the United States are covered by FDIC insurance to the extent permissible by law. In addition, in accordance with U.S. state permissible investments requirements, Moneycorp US Inc. maintains at all times sufficient cash or cash-equivalent assets to cover the entirety of funds held or in transit on behalf of clients.

Why is dealing with Moneycorp cheaper than dealing with my bank?

Banks tend to charge a fee to open an account and to hold currencies - which we do not. In addition, we charge little to no transfer fees for businesses, leveraging our large panel of liquidity providers to offer you great market rates, unlike banks who are restricted to offer their own rate.

How many currencies can I trade in with Moneycorp Online?
